

ALL COWBOY & ARENA CHAMPIONS

HALL OF FAME

Neil Love

1932 - 2014

Neil Love won his first saddle at age 18 in 1950. He joined RCA in 1953.

After serving a tour of duty in the Army in Korea, Neil then attended Texas Tech University.

While at Texas Tech, he was a member of the National Collegiate Rodeo Association National Championship team in 1955.

He won the steer wrestling at Cheyenne (Wyo.) in 1963 and the tie-down roping at the Cow Palace in San Francisco in 1964.

Neil made six NFR appearances in 1961-65 and 1967, three times as a tie-down roper and three times as a steer wrestler.

In 1968 he started Neil Love Ropes in Grandview, Tx. He designed and built his own vertical twisting machine for the ropes. Neil passed away in 2014 at the age of 82.

