

Donnie and Jennifer Powell

Donnie Powell was born into a rodeo family. He started riding calves at age five when his dad was roping calves.

Entered his first open bull riding in Los Fresnos, TX at age 12.

Qualified in Texas High School Finals two years in a row.

Received a scholarship for playing football at Rice University and one to SWTJC in Uvalde for bull riding. He chose the bull riding scholarship.

His best ride was on a John Ackles bull in March 1982 scoring

89. During high school he broke and trained and continues to team rope.

His last bull ride was at age 33 in Junction, TX.

He met his wife Jennifer Jackman in college and has been married 33 years.

Donnie has won numerous bull riding and team roping buckles.

He now judges bull ridings and is the bull riding director at 1000 Hills Cowboy Church in Kerrville, TX.

