Dan Dailey is a highly decorated cowboy who competed in multiple rodeo events, particularly saddle bronc riding, and steer wrestling. He is known for his longevity and success in the International Professional Rodeo Association (IPRA), where he won numerous all-around and saddle bronc titles. Dan Dailey is recognized as one of the most accomplished cowboys in IPRA history.

Here's a more detailed look at his accomplishments:

- All-Around Championships: Dailey won a record-breaking 17 All-Around World titles in the IPRA.
- Saddle Bronc Riding: He also holds the record for the most Saddle Bronc Riding World titles in IPRA history, winning 11.

- Steer Wrestling: He won the IPRA Steer Wrestling World Championship in 1981.
- IPRA Rookie of the Year: Dailey was named IPRA Rookie of the Year in 1974.
- International Finals Rodeo (IFR): He qualified for the IFR a total of 58 times across various events.
- Million Dollar Mark: Dailey is believed to be the only cowboy to surpass the million-dollar mark in career earnings at IPRA rodeos.
- Other Achievements: He also won 24 regional titles and 12 IFR All-Around titles.

Dan is also in the Rodeo Cowboy Hall of Fame in Oklahoma City, Okla.
