

Hill College Rodeo Team

Paul Brown - Rodeo Coach
(34 years)
(254) 205-4055
p-dbrown@hillcollege.edu

Since 1990 Hill College has had 9 national championships (8 were in the bull riding) and 10 reserve national championships. We have finished in the top ten of the nation in team standings 18 times. Hill College has 19 Southern Region Team Championships and 13 Southern Region Reserve Team Championships during this time. Hill College has had 39 athletes go on and qualify for the NFR (2 world champions).

This year (2024) Hill College has 5 male athletes and 1 female athlete representing us CNFR (college national finals rodeo) in Casper, Wyoming. These include: Regional Barrel Racing Champion - Kalli McCall; Reserve Regional Team Roping Champion Header - James Arviso; Reserve Regional Champion Saddle Bronc Rider - Coy Hebert; Reserve Regional Champion Calf Roper - Koby Douch; bull rider - Bryce Jensen; and team roper heeler -

Sam Shofner.

The team roster for the 2023-2024 school year includes: Malachi Anderson, James Arviso, Krystan Brooks, Saige Brown, Trinity Brown, Emily Chiglo, JB Collins, Koby Douch, Makenzie Dowell, Tyler Ehlinger, Cade Fedor, Brayden Gates, Kevin Greenwood, Coy Hebert, Hagen Helmcamp, Bryce Jensen, Cutter Kaylor, Jensen Ladd, Luke Leathers, Chance Littleben, Paris Littleben, Max Mathis, Kalli McCall, Destin McGrew, Austen Moore, Sydnee Mowry, Colton Payne, Presley Plemons, Harley Potter, Bryan Ray, Alex Rodell, Todd Sells, Jaron Sheehan, Sam Shofner, Kaylee Traylor, Ty Turner, Mason Vaculin, Cole Walker, Cole Watson, Lauren White, Keaghan Woods-Johnson.

Thanks and let me know if there is any different information that you might need.

Paul Brown