Johnny Wayne Hampton

Johnny Wayne Hampton aka as “Mooie” loved rodeo with everything he had but even more he treasured his rodeo friends and family. He never met a stranger and was always willing to lend a hand. Big John was larger than life, he usually did what he wanted, said what he was thinking and had a good time doing it! Johnny

Wayne had a friendly smile and a signature chuckle and boy ol' boy was he a jokester. He cherished rodeo events, whether he was competing or not he was just happy to be a part of the rodeo way. Johnny Wayne was talented but his ability took hard work. You could always tell when Johnny Wayne was focused and ready to go with the infamous tongue sticking out.

J.J. Hampton

J.J. Hampton was born and raised in Stephenville, Erath County to Johnny Wayne and Barbara Hampton. She graduated from Stephenville High School and was an honors graduate from Tarleton State University. She enjoys family time, her real estate profession, and equestrian sports.

Naturally competitive, J.J. Hampton began at the tender age of 4 by coercing her father to enter her in a rodeo near Granbury, Texas, in which her sister was competing. She did not with THAT rodeo, but began her rodeo career. Blessed with many God-given talents and passionate about competition and self-improvement, J.J. has used those blessings to ultimately compile a tremendous resume of accomplishments. From 1994 to date, J.J. has garnered the following titles:

Three-time Women's National Breakaway Roping Qualifier

Professional Women's Rodeo Association World Championship Titles (18)

6 Titles - All Around Cowgirl - 1994, 1995, 1997, 1998, 1999 & 2000
