

ALL COWBOY & ARENA CHAMPIONS

HALL OF FAME

Pake McEntire

Steer Roping • Singer/Songwriter

Pake McEntire has qualified for the PRCA National Finals Steer Roping two times. He has won the steer roping at rodeos such as Prescott, AZ, Stephenville, TX, Sheridan, WY and Pendleton, OR. In 1990 Pake won the prestigious Ben Johnson Memorial Steer Roping in Pawhuska, OK. He is the son of three time World Champion and PRCA Hall of Fame Steer Roper Clark McEntire and grandson of 1934 World Champion Steer Roper John McEntire.

In the 1970s Pake, Reba and Susie became “The Singing McEntires” with their first living room hit single a song about Grand Pap, “The Ballad of John McEntire”.

Former RCA recording artist, Pake McEntire has toured the United States and parts of Canada since the early 1980s. Three of his songs were Top Twenty hits on Billboards Country Charts: “Saving My Love For You”, “Every Night” and “Bad Love”.

Pake has performed at fairs, stage shows and dances of all kinds with entertainers such as Garth Brooks, George Strait, Reba McEntire, Vince Gill, The Judds, Alabama, Ronnie Milsap, Keith Whitley, The Bellamy Brothers, Sawyer Brown, Exile, Earl Thomas Conley, Shenandoah, David Ball, Marie Osmond, John Anderson, Glen Campbell, Ed Bruce and many more. He has appeared on Hee Haw, Nashville Now, Inside Fame, A & E Biography and the Tommy Hunter Show in Canada.

